THIRTIETH ANNUAL REPORT.

THE Managers of the Foster Home, in presenting to the public their report for 1875, have gratefully to record the continued blessing of Providence upon their labors. The past year has been one of prosperity to the Institution, the remarkably healthy and happy appearance of the children attesting to their well-being and the care bestowed upon them. They have suffered very little from sickness during the last twelve months, and but one child has died—a little boy, delicate when he entered, and only a short time an inmate of the “Home.”

At present there are ninety-six children in the Institution; twenty-four have been admitted since 1874, and twenty-five have left. Of the latter two boys have been received into the Educational Home, and two into the Lincoln Institute; two girls have gone to the Industrial Home, and one to the Young Women's Boarding Home; these seven had been in the Foster Home a number of years. The nursery contains sixteen little ones—eleven boys and five girls. No child under three years of age, and no boy over six, is admitted. Many of the children have parents who pay a small sum towards their board; others are paid for by ladies or gentlemen interested in them, and quite a number are charity children. All, except those in the nursery, are taught in the school-rooms, and the girls learn to sew. The officers, most of whom have been many years in the Institution, are kind and efficient.

The past year's expenses have been very heavy, owing especially to the necessity of flagging half of the large yard behind the house, and of repairing the roof, which was partly blown off during a gale in the summer. The Managers gratefully acknowledge the generosity of Mr. Louis A. Godey and a friend of Mrs. Alexander Brown, through which they have been enabled to make the numerous repairs necessary in the “Home,” as will be seen by the Treasurer's report. This timely assistance has greatly contributed to the present comfortable and cheerful appearance of the Institution.

Drs. Ashhurst, Butcher, Paul, and Bell are cordially thanked for their gratuitous care and attention in time of sickness.

The Managers again express their thanks to the gentlemen who alternately instruct the children on Sunday afternoon, and acknowledge once more the kindness of Mr. Rose, the baker, and Mr. Kester, the milkman of the Institution, who have contributed to the children's wants on various occasions.

The making of four hundred and thirty garments by Mrs. Shober's Dorcas Society has been of great assistance and thankfully accepted.

In conclusion, all feeling any interest in the "Home" are cordially invited to visit it and judge of the work going forward; a work that the Managers feel they may safely allow to speak for itself.

The Institution is at the corner of 24th and Poplar Streets, and open to visitors every day except Sunday.
